Families, youth, young adults, middle aged and older are going to enjoy a wonderful time of food, fellowship and FUN!

This was my sixth year as the chaplain for United Campus Ministry. I cannot believe how much this place has grown. What started as buying a loaf of bread and some sandwich meat to serve students once per week, and then trying to get a few students to read their bibles has turned into a few hundred students coming each week, and distributing more than one hundred and fifty bibles throughout the school year.

The blessing of this ministry is that we will always have a mission field. The challenge of this ministry is that the mission field is constantly transient. It's always on the move. Every two years, we have completely new students.....to read more look in the newsletter.

Teaching Sunday school is an amazing experience, anyone who has ever done it would tell you that...at least that would be our hope. There is a need for teachers and assistants to help with Sunday school this year. You can sign up for as many or as few times as you'd like. On your assigned Sunday all of your needed supplies will be waiting for you, and the kids will be excited to see you. Building a relationship with them is at the center of what we do. Assistants simply come to help the teacher, and of course interact with the kids. There is no planning on the part of our assistants. Contact Jill Boeyink to get more information, or sign up.
